"I am convinced that whenever we exaggerate or demonize, oversimplify or overstate our case, we lose...For it's precisely the pursuit of ideological purity, the rigid orthodoxy ... that keeps us from finding new ways to meet the challenges we face as a country. It's what keeps us locked in "either/or" thinking: the notion that we can only have big government or no government; the assumption that we must either tolerate forty-six million without health insurance or embrace 'socialized medicine.'" -- Barack Obama
