"I would like the church to be a place where the questions of people are honored rather than a place where we have all the answers. The church should be a place where people can come together and share their differences. We have more in common than we have differences. We cannot say we have the same truth."

"We have to be talking to other cultures, but we also have to be in the local language, acknowledging people by getting them to know each other, talk each other's language, understand each other's culture, and understand each other's history. We have to create a language in which we are unknown, inside another culture, and yet be able to communicate with them..." - Queen Noor of Jordan
