

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Judicial bodies provide a forum for truth telling."
—Louise Arbour

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"I shall never accept that the law can be used to justify tragedy, to keep things as they are, or to defend our ideas of a different world. Law is the path of liberty, and it is the way to change the world for ever and ever again."
—Oscar Arias

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"The only stable state is the one in which all men are equal before the law."
—Aristotle

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"The rule of law is a state of force, always taken by the stronger, and now taken on a new reference in a world where, if war is to go, only law can replace it."
—Roger Nash Baldwin

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"It is rather astonishing that the United States does not play ball with the ICC, considering our country was the beacon of the international criminal court."
—George Cheney

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"...only world law can assure progress toward world peace and world equality."
—Albert Einstein

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Bear in mind this sacred principle, that though the will of the majority is in all cases to be preferred, it may be easily overruled by the minority, that the minority possess their equal rights, which equal law most jealously preserves, or they would be oppressed."
—Thomas Jefferson

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Human security comes only with human rights and the rule of law. Human rights are the basis for creating strong and accountable states without which there can be no sustainable security or social progress."
—Irene Khan

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"The end of law is not to abolish or restrain, but to preserve and enlarge freedom. For in all the states of civil society, where there is no law, there is no freedom."
—Thomas Jefferson

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"If nations could only depend upon fair and impartial judgments in a world court of law, they would abandon the ... unscrupulous, savage practice of war."
—Elizabeth Cady Stanton

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Lawlessness is lawlessness. Anarchy is anarchy. Neither race nor color nor nationality nor sex nor creed is lawlessness or anarchy."
—Justice Thurgood Marshall

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"As citizens of this democracy, you are the rulers and the ruled, the law-givers and the law-breakers, the beginning and the end."
—Adlai Stevenson

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"One who breaks an unjust law must do so openly, and bear it's penalty fully. Otherwise he aids and abets the just law.
... It is the duty of the citizen to expose the conscience of the community over its injustice. It is in reality a disservice to his country to keep quiet while it is being victimized for law."
—Martin Luther King Jr.

LAW DAY

May 1

...make a difference...

Do One Thing for a Better World.

Together
We Make a World of Difference!

© The Emily Fund
Distribute freely - no endorsement implied

DoOneThing.org - EmilyFund.org

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Judicial bodies provide a forum for truth telling."
—Louise Arbour

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"I shall never accept that the law can be used to justify tragedy, to keep things as they are, or to defend our ideas of a different world. Law is the path of liberty, and it is the way to change the world for ever and ever again."
—Oscar Arias

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"The only stable state is the one in which all men are equal before the law."
—Aristotle

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"The rule of law is a state of force, always taken by the stronger, and now taken on a new reference in a world where, if war is to go, only law can replace it."
—Roger Nash Baldwin

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"It is rather astonishing that the United States does not play ball with the ICC, considering our country was the beacon of the international criminal court."
—George Cheney

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"...only world law can assure progress toward world peace and world equality."
—Albert Einstein

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Bear in mind this sacred principle, that though the will of the majority is in all cases to be preferred, it may be easily overruled by the minority, that the minority possess their equal rights, which equal law most jealously preserves, or they would be oppressed."
—Thomas Jefferson

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Human security comes only with human rights and the rule of law. Human rights are the basis for creating strong and accountable states without which there can be no sustainable security or social progress."
—Irene Khan

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"The end of law is not to abolish or restrain, but to preserve and enlarge freedom. For in all the states of civil society, where there is no law, there is no freedom."
—Thomas Jefferson

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"If nations could only depend upon fair and impartial judgments in a world court of law, they would abandon the ... unscrupulous, savage practice of war."
—Elizabeth Cady Stanton

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"Lawlessness is lawlessness. Anarchy is anarchy. Neither race nor color nor nationality nor sex nor creed is lawlessness or anarchy."
—Justice Thurgood Marshall

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"As citizens of this democracy, you are the rulers and the ruled, the law-givers and the law-breakers, the beginning and the end."
—Adlai Stevenson

LAW DAY - MAY 1

"One who breaks an unjust law must do so openly, and bear it's penalty fully. Otherwise he aids and abets the just law.
... It is the duty of the citizen to expose the conscience of the community over its injustice. It is in reality a disservice to his country to keep quiet while it is being victimized for law."
—Martin Luther King Jr.